Customer Reviews

We homeschool. And this book makes it much easier to keep track of everything.

I bought this item for the 1st time this year, and I was very happy. I purchased it in order to organize my lesson plans for home school & it suited my needs perfectly. There is lots of room to write, plenty of space for multiple subjects, and the "brain teasers" included for each week were great. This would be a great book for a teacher w/ a full class as well - - I will definitely purchase this te again next year.

I love this book. At first I started to write my actual plans down, then to cut down on the writing, I started making copies of my lesson plan and staple it to the pages. Now I will be able to reuse the book again next school term.

I got this to plan out a homeschool curriculum for my daughter for kindergarten. I love it, it has everything i need and more. I think this would be perfect for a teacher and what a great price!! Very happy with this and recommend it! If you find my review helpful, Please click on yes, "was this review helpful to you?" Thank you! :)

I really like the way this is set up. The days go down the page and the time blocks go across. This works best for me, plus there are different areas to put information. I also like the fact that on each of the days there is a little block for important reminders.

Great design but more for a classroom teacher and not a homeschooler. Ended up giving it to someone who could use it and I'm on the search for one more like I need. Great quality and colors with this one though!

I usually use the Lakeshore planner but I got this one because my grade level team uses it. I dislike that there is no monthly overview before the actual lesson planning pages. There is, however, a "Year at a Glance" page but it is in the front of the book with the useless pages about measurement and states and capitals. There is a large pencil printed on each planner page that is filled with teacher tips and suggestions. I wish that the pencil was blank so that I may jot down a "To Do" list or other quick lists. I can't imagine (with Pinterest in existence) that teachers will actually read or use those suggestions. I would not purchase this planner again. Again, I only purchased it for consistency purposes when planning with my grade level. Also, the cover had a large scratch across the front (like someone cut it when opening a package) when it arrived. There are also small scratches dotting the cover as well. At first I thought it was part of the design but they are actually spots of ripped paper. I understand that the cover will get banged up in time but it would've been nice to receive an undamaged planner. (I'm sure other teachers know the feeling of getting fresh, new supplies.) I would return it for a new one but I need to start my planning for the upcoming school year.

This has been a great tool for planning our week (homeschool preschool) and tracking what we've done. The tips on the side are great, but I'd prefer to have a to do list there or more writing room.
