Customer Reviews

This is a great little books. All the recipes are great, and it is a perfect one to have on the shelf. It is especially good for those with now just one or two in the household. But the dessert recipes outstanding and I love Quiche and about 3 at least different versions of that for the mini-ones which are great for the bridge luncheon of about 4. This is most definitely one you will be using all the time!

This is such a cute little cook book, full of colored photos and really great recipes. First half of the book is all about different tea's like mulled cider tea. The last half of the book has more sandwich type recipes. Cant wait to try some of them.

I love this book. I bought the mini cheesecake pan because of the minis on the front cover of this book. They came out great. I host high tea every other month and the recipes and the elegance in which they are presented are fabulous. I am ordering their newest book as well. If you love Tea Time Magazine then this book is an added treasure. If you don't like or have never been to a social tea, then this book will give you great ideas of dishes to make and take to any gathering.

Love having tea and these treats are just right for a "senior" couple who love something sweet but should not eat too much.

I am always looking for new Tea Cookbooks and this one did not disappoint me. Full of colorful pictures and tasty recipes to delight the pickiest eater. Enjoyable read.

Very good little book for recipes for afternoon tea.

Cute little book. Bought two, one is a gift. Looking forward to making some of these treats. Great photography.

I liked it so well I am keeping it instead of putting it in a tea party gift basket.
