Cooking Hawaiian Style Two

Synopsis

Cooking Hawaiian Style the TV show and website documents and preserves a vital part of island culture: its food. Anyone who lives in the islands knows that food both making it and sharing it is at the top of everyone's list of favorable activities. And when we talk food in Hawaii, we are also talking ohana as it is with ohana that food is enjoyed from baby luau, graduations, and other celebrations, to potlucks, barbecues, dining out, and family get togethers. Many of Hawaii's best recipes are passed down from generation to generation. Frank and Lanai's Cooking Hawaiian Style television show invites well-known celebrities and chefs to share their favorite dishes by preparing the recipes while the cameras are rolling. Inevitably, the recipes turn out to be a family favorite or the professional chef talks about how a family member influenced his or her cooking. Usually the recipes come with stories and notes to ignite fond island and ohana memories. So enjoy this second collection of ohana dishes such as Venison Chili and Coconut Shrimp along with old standbys like Pork Guisantes and Guava Chicken, or variations on a theme like the Furikake Chicharron Chicken Katsu, Mini Korean-Style Kimbap Spam Musubi and Poi Malasada French Toast.

Some of the recipes I tried since receiving the book was "good" but not "excellent." Being a kamaiina from the Islands, I didn't think it came up to the expectations like Stsr Advertiser's By Request 2 by Betty Shimabukuro. Cooking Hawaiian Style 2 was an interesting read; will try more of the recipes at a future date.

Great job everyone! An amazing collaboration of local "boys" and many excellent contributors. Their TV series is so popular how could they not provide us with cookbooks! A variety of amazing recipes and such personal comments, made me feel like I was back on the Islands.
