Customer Reviews

This book was purchased as a gift for my sister who is a formidable cook. This book quickly became one of her favorites. The recipes are great, but the stories surrounding them are great!

One of the few things missing is that elusive recipe for a masterpiece, double-crust peach cobbler. It seems that the only ones who can still make them are a few elderly people who don't use recipes for any of their fabulous cooking.

I like the variety of recipes in this cookbook. So far, the tea cakes and cookies recipe have been very good. I have since purchased a copy for a friend who likes to cook.

If like me, you enjoy cooking, old style southern meals, you will enjoy this cookbook.
