Customer Reviews

Nice book. My only complaint is that in order to get all those wonderful painterly, 3-D effects, you have to go on a Quest for all those fabrics. I have been in quite a few fabric stores in my time, and I have never even seen that stuff in the quilting department of, say, JoAnn Fabrics. If you hand dye your own, or maybe live in Paducah, Kentucky, then you're good to go. If you don't have those fabrics, then the images flatten out and look just like intricately pieced, but flat appliqué. I really bought this book for reference, so it's all good.

This is a wonderful book for applique. The author is an excellent teacher. She really makes applique fun and easy.

I enjoy doing applique and a friend had this book. After looking at it I decided I just had to have it!

One of my favorite quilting methods. And Gabrielle does a great job with applique and batiks! Highly recommend this book to anyone looking for some wonderful patterns!

Very nice book

It's ok, nothing special.

Good settings and patterns. Separate pull out sheet of patterns. No wrestling with book pages to copy patterns. Good for your library.
