Big Food Big Love: Down-Home Southern Cooking Full Of Heart From Seattle's Wandering Goose

Synopsis

When Heather Earnhardt opened her tiny, magical café, The Wandering Goose, in Seattle, she infused a little Southern comfort into the heart of a city that's skies are often gray. Her specialty is biscuits, slathered with butter and homemade jam, piled high with fried chicken and bread-and-butter pickles, or country ham and an over-easy egg. In Big Food Big Love, this âœred-dirt girlâ• shares stories from her childhood in the South and 130 recipes that contain a satisfying mix of nostalgic and traditional Southern favorites. Served up with a side of Southern charm, this is genuinely good and unfussy food that's meant to be eaten with family and friends.

Big Food Big Love is as Southern As Southern gets! This ain't no messin around! Heather AKA Momma Goose, is a treasure! She brings back childhood memories as if they are just hangin in a pantry just waitin to be brought to the table. Pull up a pourch swing, pour y'all a big glass of sweet tea, and visit awhile. No shame in doin it! Big Love Big Food!Tommy

I had the chance to meet Heather at an event yesterday and she is so authentic and charming! The book is filled with lovely stories and recipes that remind me of my grandmother and Aunt Margaret. The chicken biscuit and brownstone cake she made for us were amazing! Can't wait to try some of these on my own. Great to meet someone who cooks like me... nothing fancy but oh so yummy....
