A life changer and excellent tool to guide you in the network marketing business. It does not matter if you are a seasoned Nerworker or brand new to the industry you need this book! I have found that by doing the SAVERS of the Miracle Morning added to my daily routine that I am more centered and more productive in my Nerium business!!

Hal Elrod wrote a very successful book about a concept he calls the Miracle Morning. The Miracle Morning: The Not-So-Obvious Secret Guaranteed to Transform Your Life (Before 8AM) Pat Petrini has partnered with Hal to introduce this concept to Network Marketers. This was done by Pay, who himself is a very successful network marketer in a few different companies.The bulk of the book is profiles of successful, top 1% network marketers tell you about what they do each morning to get ready for the day, how they focus their mind and body to get the max performance out of both. They each do things a little different.This is hard for me because I am probably the least morning person that I know. Mornings have always been very hard for me. The premise of the book is to wake up a bit early, and to set your mind and body in order to be ready for the day. Read the book to know how. Many people including local great Robert Kiyosakiâ swear by this process and use it to make themselves more productive and to focus on what is important in their life.The last book I read by a network marketer was Beach Money by Jordan Adlerâ, which was also an awesome book. Jordan is actually one of the successful people who are profiled in this book. I think if you own a business of any kind that education is one of the keys to success, and books like this will bring your mindset to the next level. This book will mostly inspire you by showing you over and over again how successful people make their morning important, and thus their morning because a key to their success. I was able to buy this at a pre-release discount price, but it is worth it either way, one nugget from this book full of them will change your life enough to pay for 100 copies of this ok.

I haven't even gotten to the meat and potatoes of this book and I'm already feeling my life change for the better! I've always been a morning person but I have wasted precious countless hours and years of mornings not being productive. This is going to be life altering for anyone! You don't have to be a network marketer to gain personal empowerment from this book!

I heard about this book from someone whose opinion I respect very much. This person said he had read "The Miracle Morning" by Hal Elrod, and it had shaken him out of his depression and got him started on the right track. He mentioned that this version for network marketing was just coming out, and so I decided to put this at the top of my reading list. I started it, and devoured it in just a couple days. And this is even while having a 4 month old baby and a 4 year old! It is not a long read, but it really packs a punch and I immediately knew that I needed to start making my own Miracle Morning. So I started immediately, and I am now loving my Miracle Mornings! I feel like it starts my day off right. Keep in mind, I have young children. I also do not consider myself to traditionally be a morning person, although I sincerely think I am fast becoming one! I'm living proof that anyone can do this and be successful. Thanks for this great book Hal and Pat. I appreciate this book so much!

I LOVE this book. I've been implementing a few of the morning rituals mentioned for a few years and added a few since reading the original MM book. These "habits" are the key to creating not only a successful network marketing business but also key in creating a successful life. What I love most about this book are the stories, loved reading the way other high producing NWM entrepreneurs get their day started to create extraordinary lives. Thanks Pat and Hal.
