Customer Reviews

I have eaten at Longhi's many times in Maui and love their food. I didn't find the book as helpful as I had thought it would be. Plus the recipe that I bought the book for had the second half of the recipe missing from both books I bought. The editor just messed up when editing it.

The recipes in this wonderful well illustrated book are delicious and easy to prepare. My husband and I both cook and everything we've made to date has not disappointed! Just really great food and we highly recommend it. We came across it by accident at a home while visiting St. John and liked it so much we ordered it as soon as we got home!

We recently visited Maui and luckily just happened to have lunch at Longhi's. Our lunch was delicious, so my husband decided to buy one of the cookbooks on display. (Bob Longhi was gracious enough to autograph the cookbook for us.) We have tried several of the recipes, and are pleased to find they are easy to follow and true to the taste. Unique, delicious dishes I look forward to sharing with friends and family.

I have had this cookbook for a while. The main course recipes are pretty good, but today I made the chocolate raspberry truffle cake (pictured on the back of the book). The recipe flipped two of the major steps in the recipe. It said to pour the ganache over the cake (while still in the pan) before cutting the cake in three layers (which is difficult to do since it is so crumbly) and frosting it. You can tell that the steps should be flipped by looking at the picture, but I did not realize this until it was too late. :(

Wonderful book. Refreshingly simple and delicious recipes. I also like the fact that he gives recommendations on ingredients -which brands he likes, etc.

Love their recipes especially if you love fish of all kinds. Have been to Maui several times and every time we go there we Always eat at Longhi's Restaurant!

It made for good reading, but was very average as far as recipes go. and some ingredients were too local and no advice for substitutes was given.

Longhi's is arguable the best restaurant in Lahaina. For Italian with a bit of island fusion, this is a wonderful volume for the home chef.
